

PRESS RELEASE

Cliste Solutions, LLC Builds Online Presence for Caring Crossroads, LLC

Gaithersburg, MD, 30 September 2024 — Cliste Solutions, a leader in providing technology solutions and consulting services in the Information Technology sector, is excited to announce they have built the online presence and corporate website for Caring Crossroads, LLC, a prominent service provider serving families and seniors in facilitating life transitions in the areas of move management, decluttering / organizing and organizational Project Management.

This partnership marks a significant milestone for both organizations as they collaborate to transform Caring Crossroads website which will expose Caring Crossroads services across the internet. Under the terms of the arrangement, Cliste Solutions has provided technology consulting and website development services to Caring Crossroads. Cliste Solutions aims to increase Caring Crossroad's online presence with the goal of sharing the important services Caring Crossroads offer to seniors and their families assisting with managing move ins / move outs, assisting with organizing space and managing projects related to decluttering and move management.

"We are thrilled to be able to provide our expertise to support a small business like Caring Crossroads grow. We agreed to do this project for the Caring Crossroads team because the work they are doing is so important. It is very refreshing to see a company so passionate about helping others and we're happy we can support their mission" said Mark O'Connor, CEO of Cliste Solutions. Caring Crossroads CEO Helen Boyadjian added, " Working with Mark was a dream. Mark was professional, creative and efficient. His patience combined with his expertise was critical in walking me through the process of how to develop the website for easy navigation. It was overwhelming at times, but Mark's patience made the entire process easier. Mark had great suggestions and went above and beyond to create the best website that was clear, easy to navigate and informative. My timeline was very aggressive, and Mark worked diligently to get the website and emails up and going in time for an important tradeshow. Mark's follow up was instrumental in staying on schedule. I will continue to work with Mark on this and other projects and have gladly referred him to other colleagues and companies. Mark and Cliste Solutions is a gem and joy to work with!"
